

Rutgers-Newark Athletic Hall of Fame

Frank Adinolfi

Men's Tennis

(Inducted 2006)

Frank Adinolfi had an outstanding career as a Rutgers-Newark tennis player by compiling a record of 97 wins and 16 losses. Adinolfi, who played from 1983 through 1985, was a major factor in bringing the Rutgers-Newark Tennis Team to three undefeated seasons, 1983, 1985, and 1986.

As a junior, Adinolfi posted an undefeated 15-0 record at 2nd singles. His exceptional year concluded by winning the 1985 New Jersey Athletic Conference Championship at 2nd singles. Adinolfi earned the 1st singles spot his senior year and was a finalist in the 1st singles flight at the New Jersey Athletic Conference Tournament. An excellent doubles player, Adinolfi finished as a finalist in the 1st doubles flight at the New Jersey Athletic Conference Tournament in 1985 and 1986.

Adinolfi, who was a captain his junior and senior year, was voted 1st Team All Conference in 1984 and 1985 for singles.

Frank Adinolfi resides in Hillsborough, New Jersey.